Rector's Message

By now you most likely have heard that I have been nominated in an episcopal election in the Diocese of Algoma (October 13th and 14th in Sault Ste. Marie). I proceed to this election with the full support and consent of each member of my family. I am grateful to God for my wife Kim and our sons Spencer and Avery who are ready to relocate to the Sault if so called.

Algoma was the first Diocese in which I served. It was in Algoma where I became an active lay person, first as an underground miner and later as Police Officer. It was in Algoma the church discerned a call to the Priesthood for me. It was with Algoma I went through the enquiry, postulant, seminarian and ordained stages of formation and it was at the Cathedral in the Sault where I served my assistant curacy.

It seems fitting that this diocese will also discern a possible call to Episcopal ministry. As with all processes of discernment, "yes" or "no" is the right answer according to our Lord's will. It is clear that God did not call me to be a Bishop in the Diocese of Toronto. It may also be clear that he does not want me to be a Bishop at all. But, it is also possible that he may intend me to be the Bishop of Algoma. Please pray for me, the other candidates and the members of Synod that God's will be done in this election.

Where is God calling me to serve? We will all know on October 13th. One thing is for sure, I can't think of a finer parish than Christ Church, Brampton. As I look to the future of Christ Church, I am filled with confidence and hope. We are on the cusp of newer, brighter days, welcoming new parishioners and new staff.

Welcome to the Rev. Jeff Nowers, our new Assistant Curate, and Elias Hanna, our new Youth Ministry Director. We will be blessed by their ministry and we pray that we will be a blessing to them through prayer, participation and commitment. If you haven't already done so, please take the time to introduce yourself.

Warm, Friendly, Caring...

Christ Church Anglican is a warm and caring community that has been serving God in Brampton since its inception in 1851. We are fully wheelchair accessible with special parking at the north side of the building and a ramp at the west door on Elizabeth Street. There is an elevator that provides access to the lower church hall. Accessible bathrooms are located on both floors. Ample free street parking is available nearby.

Sunday Services include a Said Eucharist at 7:45 am, a Contemporary Eucharist at 9:00 am, and a Choral Eucharist at 10:45 am. Sunday school classes are available for children from aged 3 to grade 6 at the 9:00 am and 10:45 am services, which also includes a staffed nursery room. We have occasional events for youth and a twice a month program for grades 6 and up.

Baptisms are celebrated at specific dates throughout the year. The church provides preparation for sponsors, godparents, and older candidates. Those interested in the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation or Marriage are welcome to contact the clergy.

Christ Church is active in community outreach, supporting the Knights' Table, Salvation Army's Family Life Centre, Regeneration, Ste. Louise, Our Place Peel and more. We also participate in Caring and Sharing at Christmas.

We have committed lay participation in all aspects of worship, and we have a number of active fellowship groups within the parish.

We hope you are interested by what you read within these pages, decide to learn more about us, and become more involved yourself, with our active and friendly parish community.

God has certainly blessed us with that which we need to affect our mission in this place, putting us on an even stronger footing for the future.

This fall, as we celebrate all that we have to be thankful for in this land of freedom and peace, let's take time to pay it forward by remembering, both in our prayers and our actions, those who find themselves on the margins of society; the vulnerable, the poor, those who mourn, the lonely and those who feel unloved.

Why not reach out to such folks in your circle and ask them to come to church with you this fall?

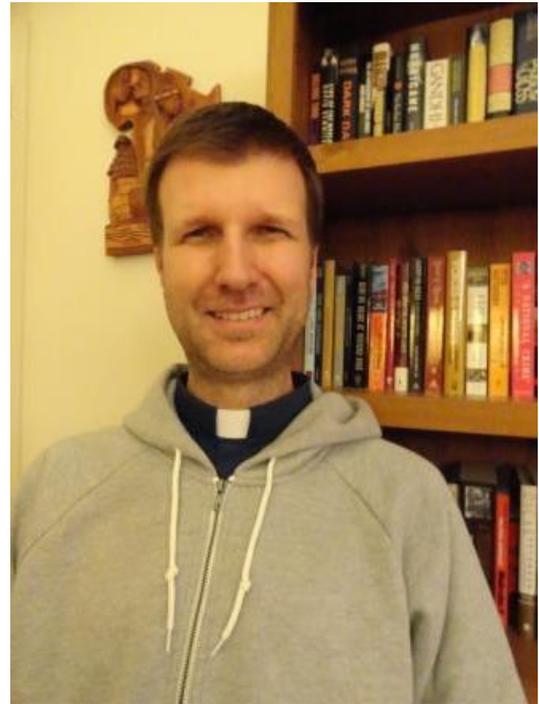

We have so much for which to be thankful! Although we may not know the future, we know who holds the future.

Greeter things are yet to come!
-- Byron†

Curate's Corner

Hello, Christ Church! I'm your new Assistant Curate, and I'm thrilled to be joining you. Thank you for welcoming me so warmly. An Assistant Curate is a newly ordained person who is undertaking a kind of apprenticeship to gain experience in the work of a priest. I was ordained a Deacon at St. James Cathedral on May 1, 2016, and I hope to be ordained a priest, at Christ Church, sometime next spring.

I was born in Winnipeg and lived as a youngster in Vancouver, but I grew up in Toronto. After I graduated high school many moons ago, I thought I'd have a career in urban planning because I was interested in neighbourhood organizing and community renewal. But then I became fascinated with theology, even though I didn't have much of a commitment to the church at the time. My goals began to shift. I set my sights on becoming a theology Professor. However, the more I studied theology, the more I was drawn to the Anglican Church and its liturgy. I became an Anglican, was eventually confirmed by Archbishop Colin Johnson, and now here I am as a transitional Deacon. My Anglican formation has been mostly within the "Anglo-Catholic" tradition, and I'm very interested in Franciscan spirituality.

People often ask me where I went to seminary, Wycliffe or Trinity? Neither. Many years ago some unique circumstances led me to McMaster University, and I spent five years there, first in the Divinity College and then on the other side of the campus doing postgraduate studies in religion. Recently I've been based downtown at the University of Toronto, writing a Ph.D. dissertation (it's actually a big book) about the philosopher Hegel and his influence on Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a theologian who was executed by the Nazis for his role in a plot to assassinate Hitler. I took this past summer to spend a lot of time writing. It's not quite finished, but there's light at the end of the tunnel. Stay tuned!

Over the years I've held many different kinds of jobs. I've taught theology courses at Trinity College, served on the pastoral staff of St. James Cathedral, and worked as an administrator for a Mennonite research and teaching centre. I've also loaded flatbed trucks in a steel factory, assessed internal retail theft as a licensed private investigator, delivered daily mail and parcels on campus, and supervised the use of trades equipment and tools. I enjoy cycling, playing table tennis, and shooting free throws (I was born with a basketball in my hands). Another thing you should know is that I'm a huge music history buff. I like to read about jazz while I listen to it, and I've also got an extensive collection of classic soul and funk!

I'm married to Alison Hari-Singh, and she works at St. James Cathedral with young adults. Every now and then she'll be able to join me at Christ Church. In the meantime, I look forward to getting to know all of you and journeying with you. Christ Church has a bright future, and I'm blessed to be a part of it.

-- Jeff Nowers

Group Updates

Altar Flowers

With the passing of summer, we eagerly look forward to Harvest Sunday and Thanksgiving weekend.

Once again our church is beautifully decorated rejoicing in the bountiful harvest our Lord has given us with fruits, vegetable, preserves, fall floral arrangements, etc. These donations are then given to one of our Outreach Ministries. Harvest decorating took place on Saturday, October 1st and thank you to all of your donations.

If you would like to memorialize a loved one with Altar Flowers any Sunday during the year, please feel free to contact me or leave your request with the office.

Thank you in advance for your usual generosity as we look forward to the Harvest and Thanksgiving Season and the opportunity of thanking God for the many blessing He has giving us.

-- Phyllis Moffatt

Parish Fellowship Group

The goal of our group continues to foster fellowship among women of Christ Church, while raising funds through our fundraisers in support of individuals and organizations in our community and church projects.

We meet on the 2nd Wednesday of each month (except for July and August) in the Canon Allan Room at 1:30pm. The group gathers for a time of sharing with good food and friends.

A business meeting begins our sessions, followed by a program, which might include a speaker from an organization in the community or a slide show of pictures from some persons' travels to a faraway land or country. On other occasions, the hostesses for that month might provide a fun time with games or trivia questions, where we are forced to don our thinking caps if we want to receive the top small prize. Hostesses for each meeting provide light refreshments with tea being served.

A potluck luncheon is held at the January and September meetings, and often we have a fun time participating in a Penny Auction following our luncheon and business meeting that day.

Our ladies group presently consists of 30 active members with 10 members on an honorary list. We extend a heartwarming invitation and welcome to ladies of all ages in our congregation to come visit with us and learn more about our group.

Respectfully submitted,
-- Lydia Bennett (President)

Altar Guild

Joining the Altar Guild gives you the opportunity to meet other members of the church and contribute to the beauty of the services in a very important way.

A team of four members is on duty every 6 weeks, beginning on Saturday morning with preparing the Altar for each service. Changing the linens, banners and decorations are all part of our duties. Filling the candles, setting out memorial flowers, and decorating for the festivals are also done by the Altar Guild.

Preparing the communion vessels and setting the Altar for Sunday service is done on Saturday morning, and then the team works together on Sunday morning to wash the dishes and prepare the Altar for the next service. We also have 2 evening meetings a year as we prepare for the Christmas and Easter season. If you would like to learn more about this ministry please give me a call.

Respectfully submitted,
-- Phyllis Moffatt - Coordinator (phone: 905-454-0864)

Servers Guild

A Server by definition is "One who serves or attends to the requirements of others", in this case the Lord our God. We have Clergy, Wardens, Sides team, Alter Guild, Choir, Schoolteachers and the Servers Guild, plus a number of other volunteers that assist in the organization and presentation of services and other events around the church.

Any Baptized individual of any age with the capabilities to perform the duties of assisting a priest / celebrant in the sanctuary are welcome members of the Servers Guild.

We currently have adult members, Penny Batey, Joan Powell, Bob Gilpen and myself to mention a few. We also have youth members from the most recent confirmation classes as well as a few 9 to 11 year olds who are really keen on learning what goes on during the services while Sunday School takes place. I think it is good that these younger people are interested, but we as a congregation we should encourage them to go to Sunday School as well as assist in the service when available.

Anyone of any age, older teenagers, younger adults and anyone over 30 who has an interest, are more than welcome to attend training sessions to determine whether or not this is something for you.

Please remember that when there are Baptismal Services, when asked "Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbour as yourself?" we all say "We will, with God's help!"

Yours, in Christ,
-- Don Perrault (email: djp248@hotmail.com)

Coffee Time

Coffee – Tea - Cold Drinks Time!

Coffee Time is a great place to make connections with others in our church family. Since becoming the new Coffee Time Coordinator this summer, I have met many new friends and learned what a great bunch of people makes up Christ Church. I look forward to meeting more!

Not sure if you want to help? Let me allay some fears that you may have that I had in May:

Fear 1) I don't know how to make coffee right or the coffee maker might break!

Never fear! I will meet you down in the kitchen at 8:30 am on the morning you volunteer. I can either make the coffee, while you set the table, or I can teach you!

Fear 2) I am not a good cook.

Never fear! Baking is not required for this volunteer position! Some people like to bake the goodies they bring. Other people prefer to buy the goodies they bring. Still others like to use the on-hand goodies that are stored in a nearby freezer. Fortunately, Christ Church people like cookies no matter where they come from.

Fear 3) I don't know how to use the dishwasher.

Never fear! I am pretty good at showing you which buttons to press.

Fear 4) I will sign up and then forget to come that day.

Never fear! When you sign up, you'll put your phone number and email address beside your name, and I will personally remind you several days before your Sunday. Hopefully, you will still be free to volunteer, but if not, just let me know and I will find you another day that works.

Fear 5) If I sign up for ONE Sunday, I will be asked again and again.

Never fear! Many hands make light work. I am hoping to talk lots of you into helping out just once in the next year. In fact, once I've had a chance to get to know you by working alongside you, I don't want you to volunteer again this year! I want to get to know every person in the church. Of course, you may love this job SO much that you INSIST on coming back!

Fear 6) I've never done this before and I don't know what I'm signing up to do.

Never fear! Here's the rundown: Arrive at 8:30 am. Either help in the kitchen or by setting out tables and chairs. Then join the service. After communion, head back down to help with the final details (taste testing, etc.). When the people come, pour tea, meet people, have tea/coffee/cookies, chat, wipe tables, collect cups, wash and put away a few dishes, eat leftover cookies, go home.

To sign up use the sign up sheet at Martha's desk or come say hi to me downstairs.

Back by popular demand!

Laurie Atkins presents her musical drama "Was Blind, But Now I See".

Laurie portrays Fanny Crosby Despite being blinded as a baby her accomplishments are staggering. Fanny wrote more than 8,000 hymns and Sunday School songs, and became one of the best known and respected women in the United States.

Her story is a reminder that God can use you no matter what your physical limitations are or how ordinary you think you are. People are not born into greatness, but rather, greatness is thrust upon them if they have a willing heart and spirit to serve God.

Most of the songs sung in this presentation are, of course, Fanny Crosby's work. While others, before she started writing, are Laurie's own original compositions.

People Profile

Featuring short information spotlights on people at Christ Church to help us get to know each other better. This profile was done as a Q&A between Ron and Elizabeth in honour of his coming first anniversary at Christ Church

Ron Greidanus

What started your career in music?

According to my mother, before I could speak, I would dance in my playpen any time music came on the radio. Following her observation in my rhythmic prowess, it was clear at a fairly early age that I should be enrolled in music lessons. Before taking formal lessons at the age of 11, I was the only boy in an all girls' choir for 4 years, which was unheard of in a Dutch farming community. Once enrolled as a piano student with local piano teacher, I then proceeded to go through 9 grades in 4 years, having self-learnt Tchaikovsky's First Piano Concerto at 16.

What led to your interest in church music?

Before my first position as a church organist at the age of 14, at Middleton's Anglican church, my Christian upbringing was nurtured in the Christian Reformed Church, rooted in deep Calvinist theology. On my exit from the CRC I have played in a number of Anglican churches across Europe and North America.

What attracts you about the Anglican musical tradition?

It was an easy transition for me musically to enter the world of the Anglican Church. The traditional services contain so much possibility through the use of psalms, canticles, plainsong and anthems. Even though I loved the four part harmony in the hymns from my Calvinist tradition, there was just so much extra in the Anglican service. When I first discovered Morning Prayer, it was like opening a treasure chest. Even something as simple as Marbecke's Apostle's Creed blew me away.

What made you come to Christ Church Brampton last year?

Having been wooed over the past years while at St. George's Anglican in Georgetown, following 15 years of dedicated service to that parish, I finally decided it was time to make a change in my professional career and religious environment.

What are some of your other musical commitments outside the church?

I perform locally here in Brampton with the Rose Symphony Orchestra. This season, I was their featured pianist on October 1st in a performance of Liszt and Beethoven. In addition to my concert pianist work, I perform on harpsichord with an orchestra and choir including groups such as the Toronto Symphony and the Boris Brott Festival. I teach approximately 15 private piano students each year. I also lead a wonderful Baroque choir and chamber orchestra called the Georgetown Bach Chorale.

What do you like to do with your time other than perform music?

In the summer time, I like to throw hay bales on farms south of Georgetown. In order to facilitate the many musical projects I do, staying healthy and working out is also a great passion of mine.

What are your plans for the future of the music program at Christ Church?

One of my plans for the future is to do a collaboration celebrating the purchase of the new Kawai keyboard. It will allow us to perform a Paul Halley piece that involves two pianists, choir and percussion. I think this would be a wonderful way to unite the various musical groups that exist at Christ Church. I am also interested in introducing some new service music to the seasonal settings to help enrich the congregation's liturgical experience.

The Courier is 50! Help Needed!

This is the 50th Anniversary of the Christ Church Courier. As with all beginnings there are also endings. My first publication was the Advent 2007 edition. The Advent 2016 edition will be my last. That will be my 37th issue of this fine publication.

We are looking for those that are willing to take on the task of publishing this in the future. Please speak up and let me know if that is you!

I have a nice process outlined and will help to make the transition really easy. There is no need to wait until December though, as I am eager to help someone take over this ministry now! The only tool you need is Microsoft Word – or another capable work processor. The rest I will guide you from start to finish.

If you are interested in being part of the future of the Courier, please let me know by email, phone or in person. Without you there will not be a Courier.

Junior Youth Retreat

On September 10th, the Junior Youth made their way to the Cedar Glen YMCA camp for the weekend. They went with the purpose to get to know each other through sports, fun and fellowship. This would in turn build and strengthen friendships to become a supportive and safe group. Here are a few pictures from that day, with more to come from Elias and Kim.

What's in a Song?

Remember those crops that were planted in the spring? All summer long they were tended with care in hopes that the yield will keep us through the difficult months ahead. This practice occurs every year as we anticipate the long winter, when the land sleeps and food becomes scarce. Well, that is how it used to be. Now we have Metro, Sobeys and an intricate transportation system to keep the food coming. Nonetheless, Harvest season is a wonderful illustration of spiritual bounty, yielded from conscientious discipline. This is the task appointed to us.

Cecil Frances Alexander was born in Ireland in 1823. As a young girl, she showed a gift for poetry and her father encouraged her to use it. She became a prolific hymn writer, producing over 400 hymns in her lifetime. Being married to the Rt. Reverend W. Alexander, (Bishop of Derry) Mrs. Alexander used her songs to explain scriptural teaching to the children of the parish. This gentle act of sowing and tending not only reaped its intended bounty, but also provided significant influence for generations of songwriters to come, including modern hymn writers Keith and Kirsten Getty. Some notable hymns by Cecil Frances Alexander were “Once In Royal David’s City”, “There’s a Green Hill Far Away” and “Jesus Calls Us O’er the Tumult”.

Believe it or not, this seemingly benign piece of history has some relevance to our 21st Century lives. When Christian songs and hymns are written as an illustration of Christian scripture and principles, then the learning of them is somewhat like “hiding [God’s] word in our hearts...” (Psalm 119:105). This is what it means to anchor ourselves to a firm foundation, which is Christ. When the winds of life blow in, (concerns, anxiety, fear, loss, persecution, danger, chaos) our creeds and scripture remind us of the truth. If we reflect on the truth we understand, we take our eyes off the distractions that we don’t. It stands to reason that we need to understand and practically apply scripture, so we can look back to it in winter weather.

In the song “Good, Good Father”, the bridge repeats “you are perfect in all of your ways to us” (Deuteronomy 32:4 and Revelation 15:3). This song expresses our intrinsic value to God, who made us. I often hear from friends and colleagues, their belief that God is angry with them or God hates them. How can this be said of God, who is perfect in all of his ways to us and knows our needs before we even ask? (Matthew 6:8). If he hated us, he wouldn’t bother. Instead, he nurtures and feeds us so we can grow to be like him. Like the farmer and his crop.

Should you find yourself drifting away or forgetting God, think back on the truths that you do know about him. Trust him, and he will direct your path. (Proverbs 3:5 and 6)

I’ve seen many searching for answers far and wide
I know they’re all searching for answers only you provide
Because you know just what we need before we say a word
You’re a good, good Father, It’s who you are
And I’m loved by you, it’s who I am.

Make plans for the winter storms by tying your anchor to a firm foundation. Happy Harvest!

Laying on of Hands

Is anyone among you sick? Then they must call for the elders of the church and they are to pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer offered in faith will restore the one who is sick -- James 5:14-15 (NAS)

At Christ Church we offer this anointing on the first Sunday of each month at the time of the Eucharist to any who are struggling with physical or emotional distress. Please take advantage of this beautiful, ancient practice.

Courier Contributions Request

We print general items submitted from members of the congregation. These items are welcomed and will be used as space and relevance allows. If you feel a calling to do this, please do not hesitate to submit it.

We would also like to see more group updates from around the Parish. In a given year, references to many groups are only made in the annual Vestry Report. Some groups only appear in the bulletin once in a while when they are organizing an event.

Please reflect on your group's ability to add one or two items a year to The Courier. It would be even better if you could submit information for all four editions in a year so we can all keep up to date on the various groups available to us in our Parish.

Quotations

Do you have a favourite quotation of a religious or spiritual nature? If you would like to see it in The Courier, please send it to us. Please be sure to quote the source.

The Courier Schedule

There are four editions of The Courier published every year. Due to the publishing dates being tied to four major church events the exact publishing dates move every year. If you have any doubt about the publishing dates or submission deadlines, please use the following as a guide.

| Number | Edition | Publication | Submission Deadline |
|---------------|----------------|---------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1 | Lent | First Sunday of Lent | 2 weeks prior to publication |
| 2 | Pentecost | First Sunday of Pentecost | 2 weeks prior to publication |
| 3 | Harvest | Harvest Sunday | 2 weeks prior to publication |
| 4 | Advent | First Sunday of Advent | 2 weeks prior to publication |

As you can likely tell, there is a very simple formula to our dates. In the past some of these have moved around a week or two. If this should change for any reason, then ample notice will be provided.

The submission deadline for inclusion in the next edition is November 13, 2016
The Pentecost edition of The Courier will be published on November 27, 2016.
